PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Mackenzie Stasko is a reporter with more than six years of experience in TV news. She started her career in Ohio and spent a year working as a reporter and weekend anchor. Her next stop was western Pennsylvania, where she worked as a one-woman band and fill-in anchor. After more than two years in the snow-belt, Mackenzie traded her boots for sandals and accepted a reporter position at the ABC affiliate in Hawai'i. While in the Aloha State, Mackenzie has covered the historic Kilauea Volcano eruptions, Hurricane Season, the state legislature and other local news in the community.
